

Mayor's Communiqué (April 2009)

On March 6th, I had the privilege of meeting with our MP Jim Abbott and MLA Bill Bennett in Cranbrook to officially receive the Waste Water Treatment Plant grant of $3.14 million from the Federal and Provincial governments for the Building Canada Fund program. We will now be proceeding full ahead to do retrofits and upgrades to the Waste Water Treatment Plant on this 30 year old facility.

Your Town Council and staff are in the process of Budget reviews and later this month we will finalize the 2009 Budgets.

In April, we will receive and review the first report on how we can create a “Regional Policing Model” for the Town of Creston and Areas of A, B and C of the Regional District.
