

Mayor's Communiqué

(May 3, 2009)

During the month of April 2009, I recorded 199 hours doing Mayor's work and duties; this includes travel from Creston to Nelson and Cranbrook to attend Regional District meetings and also to attend the AKBLG Annual General Meeting and other Committee meetings.

The Learning Curve continues and enhancing and improving our Communications by the Town Council with the Regional District, the local School District Board and the Lower Kootenay Indian Band Council was significantly addressed during the month of April.

My HIGHLIGHTS during April:

- attending the RDCK Board meeting held at the Brilliant Cultural Center near Castlegar
- attending the Creston Home & Garden Show, for a total of 10 hours, to work at the Airport Society booth as well as meet and talk to many local citizens
- attending the Chamber dinner meeting with the US Consul General
- attending our joint lunch with RD Directors and the School District Board
- attending our dinner meeting with the Lower Kootenay Indian Band Council
